Budget Busters: When You Want to Splurge!

A lot of time and planning goes into a vacation. Vacations are a time for you to kick back, relax, and enjoy the trip you have been planning for so long. So why not treat yourself and splurge a little on your trip? You work hard all year to be able to enjoy a few weeks of solitude and relaxation, therefore you should allow yourself to enjoy the best of what is available.

Why not start your vacation off on the right foot by flying to your vacation destination first class? Passengers who fly first class are often privy to a number of extra accommodations not accessible in coach or economy class. The meal and drink selection is often better, with some airlines offering meals such as filet mignon or veal chop in first class. With more seat room, first class passengers are given the privilege of a more comfortable flight, particularly if they wish to sleep along the way.

Most airlines also provide first class passengers with complimentary alcoholic beverages. Different airlines also offer a number of other perks for first class passengers such as massaging seats. For information on these perks do your homework before booking your flight and check into the amenities provided on each airline.

Since you are traveling to your destination first class, why not upgrade your hotel amenities as well. Upgrading from a standard hotel room to a suite will give you a lot more room to kick back and relax while enjoying your vacation. In most prominent hotels, suites offer all the comforts of home. Most include considerably sized balconies with beautiful views and some even include personal hot tubs or Jacuzzis.

If you are planning on splurging on the most expensive room available then you might as well make it the best room in the best hotel in the area. Have you always wanted to stay at a Hilton? Well now is the perfect time. Stay in the fanciest, most expensive hotel you can find. Chances are, the service and amenities will make it more than worth your money.

Travel around your vacation destination in style with a classy rental car. Rent a car you would not normally rent or get to drive. This provides an extra perk you can provide for yourself during the trip. If you are someone who is into cars, selecting a car you really want to drive will be a highlight of your vacation. A pricy SUV or a sleek convertible will add some excitement to getting around during your trip.

If you are planning a vacation on a cruise ship then why not spring for the top package available? Stay in the best room and enjoy what is most likely one of the best views from the rooms on the ship. Most cruise ships house spas which can provide a relaxing day on the boat. Some cruise lines also offer passengers on-ship casinos. Casinos can be a ton of fun so why not allow yourself to spend a little extra cash while trying to win some back? Even if you lose it will be worth it because you will be having loads of fun.

When the ship docks make sure you experience all you can by taking part in onshore excursions. Hiking, snorkeling, and guided tours of the area where the ship has docked are usually available. When you sign up for the cruise you will be able to sign up for these excursions as well. Make sure to sign up early, as the best and most popular excursions always fill up fast.

If you have the money to splurge on a vacation then make sure to visit only the best restaurants and attractions in the area. Do not waste your time on activities you do not enjoy simply because they are cheap. If you are going to make the most of your vacation and money is no object then make it a vacation you will remember for years to come as one of the best ever. Try new things that you have always wanted to try, eat expensive and exotic foods, and buy souvenirs that catch your eye no matter how expensive, that way you will always have a memento of your excellent vacation.

Vacation with the Stars: Where Hollywood goes to Relax

Want to visit one of the top notch vacation spots in the world? Then why not take travel advice from those who travel there – Hollywood stars. There are a number of vacation spots around the world where Hollywood's elite go to find some rest and rejuvenation. With some research and travel planning, you could be sitting in a spa next to Jack Nicholson or playing tennis with Julia Roberts.

For an exotic getaway fit for a star, try the South Pacific Island of Fiji. Fiji offers solitude from the rest of the world and a relaxing getaway on one of the most beautiful islands in the world. Surrounded by a crystal clear ocean, spectacular waterfalls, and picturesque mountains, it is no wonder why Hollywood's most famous stars vacation here. With a number of vacation resorts around Fiji, you should not have any trouble finding a place to stay if you book in advance.

Make sure to check out some of the extra activities offered by the resorts when choosing where to stay. There is so much to do in Fiji, from scuba diving to taking a tour through a nearby rainforest that you do not want to miss anything that would really interest you. Fiji is the perfect spot to take part in a once-in-a-lifetime experience. Also consider pampering yourself like a star and renting out a private island for the day. One of the most popular features of Fiji, having your own island for the day is something you will likely never be able to do again.

Another beautiful vacation spot popular with the stars is the Mediterranean Sea. Bordered by some of the most beautiful European nations including Italy and Greece, the Mediterranean offers a picturesque scene of tranquility and beauty. If visiting the Mediterranean consider booking yourself on a Mediterranean cruise. These cruises often offer the best views of the beautiful land and crystal clear waters surrounding you.

The cruises typically dock in at least three different ports, offering you the opportunity to see as much of the area as possible during your trip. On shore excursions in places like Cypress, Egypt and Italy will provide plenty of entertainment and activities during your trip. You will also be able to take in all of the fun on the boat. Most cruise ships offer an on board spa, casinos, restaurants and activity areas where guests can make the most of their vacation.

If you want to travel like the stars but don't want to travel abroad – no problem. You can vacation with the stars right here in the United States. In between shooting movies, famous stars do not always have enough time to travel to exotic destinations in foreign countries. Sometimes stars find that the best vacations can be right here in the United States – and even a short drive from Hollywood, as is the case with the Westin Kierland Resort in Scottsdale, Arizona. This extremely posh resort offers all the amenities a star would find at a resort in the Caribbean or South Pacific. The pool area at the resort includes a main pool, a water slide, and a 900-foot long river ride where guests can spend the day lazily relaxing while floating down the mock river.

The grounds of the resort are packed with beautiful sculptures and landscaping that makes it one of the most beautiful spots to vacation in the US. The resort is also home to a number of Arizona's finest pieces of art in its three art exhibition halls. Culture is definitely not lacking at the Westin Kierland Resort in Arizona. If you are looking for some great souvenirs the resort offers a number of stores and shops where you can buy something for everyone back home. The resort also offers a wide variety of restaurants from the Cheesecake Factory to Cold Stone Creamery.

You do not have to be a star to vacation like one. All you need is a little time to research some of Hollywood's most popular spots for vacation getaways. Once you have found the perfect spot be prepared to spend money – vacationing like the stars does not come cheap. However, once there, you will sure to experience the best of what is offered.
